OH BOY
The sun is down
The dishes done
The spiderwebs outside are being spun
The TV's on
The kid's asleep
Coyotes run like dogs in the street
The sun is up
The kid is fed
The flies are circling above the bed
The bed is warm
The room is still
The leaves are falling on the window sill
There's nothing that you need
With everything you got
But there's something that you want

LYDIA
I've been waiting here
Far too long
Don't know why you won't reply
Whatever you wanted
Whatever you needed
Can't stand to see you
I can't and I won't
I can't and I won't
I can't and I won't
I can't and I won't
I've been waiting way too long
You've been playing for way too long
'Cause I can't and I won't
I won't

GEE
You're a tall inferno
I'm an inkwell
There's no chance to get away from you
I'm a single eyelash
You're a cross breeze
There's no way I'll crumble under you
And I wait for you to calm
There's a darker hour
There's a long stair
I won't ever, ever, ever crawl
Partly leaves we're made of
No denying that we're made of
And I wait for you to calm

KEVIN'S COMING OVER
Kevin's coming over
There's no party hats or streamers
But we'll talk about the weather
And get real about our dealers and I
Chris is coming over too
Gonna have a drink or two and
Fix our little ego problem
Watch the way it hits the bottom
Don't wanna hear about it
Much rather fear and doubt it
I know why
I know why
Kevin's coming over
It's a weekday afternoon and we got
Nothing better going for us
Nothing that seems worth a chorus
Joe is coming over too
Headung on that long commute to Tell me I look pretty vacant
Tell me that he hopes I make it

CRYING OUT LOUD
Whenever we're driving in your car
I wanna at the car around
Whenever we're drinking
I wanna think we say goodbye
We always wonder why
Think it's gonna change
Oh, but it happens every time
For crying out loud. Every time
Maybe in another place and time
Made it to the end
Try this all again
But for now we'll try
Think it's gonna change
And wonder why
For crying out loud
Every time

UNDER
I was looking for a way outside
And I knew
And I knew
I'm under, under
BREAKING UP
Hey can you hear me?
Hey are you near me?
All the times that I've been shaken up
All the lies that I've been making up
Say that you're near me
Am I waking up?
Am I waking up?
Hey will she haunt me?
Hey could you want me?
All the time since we've been breaking up
All the space that I've been taking up
Say that you want me
Am I waking up?
Am I waking up?

CLEANERS
Waiting for you, I've been waiting
I, I don't wanna waste away
I, I don't wanna know now
I don't wanna go your way
Or fade away
Go your way
I don't wanna say your name
I don't wanna stay now
Or fade away
Go your way
I don't wanna say your name
I don't wanna stay now
Or fade away
Go your way
I don't wanna say your name
I don't wanna stay now
Or fade away
Go your way
I don't wanna say your name
I don't wanna stay now
Or fade away
Go your way
I don't wanna say your name
I don't wanna stay now
Or fade away
Go your way

AT YOUR DOOR
I drive to your house
I wait at the door
For you to come out
We drive to your house
We wait in the car
For you to say when
